

Dogs and Cats

Additional Requirements or Exceptions

No Certificate of Veterinary Inspection is required if Dogs and Cats travel with their owner and remain in the state for less than 30 days.

No Import Permit required

Animals are restricted from entering South Dakota if

Animals are under quarantine for rabies.

Animals are experiencing signs of communicable, contagious, or infectious disease.

Proof of a current Rabies Vaccination is required for animals three months of age and older.

Domestic and International travel information: Fly With My Pet