

Avian

Additional Requirements or Exceptions

A CERTIFICATE OF VETERINARY INSPECTION (CVI) OR NPIP VS FORM 9-3 MUST ACCOMPANY ALL POULTRY ENTERING THE STATE

Poultry, Hatching Eggs, and Ratites (Birds used in production)

CVI exemption: Moving immediately to an approved slaughter facility.

Import Permit is required.

Exemption: Annual permit for NPIP participants,
(valid September 1 through August 31)

Call the Animal Industry Board for more information on NPIP.

SD AIB permit application for importation of poultry and hatching eggs.

Non-Poultry (Pet birds, Raptors, etc.)

Individual Identification must be listed on the CVI.

(Tattoo, leg band, wing band, or microchip)

Exhibition poultry

Official Identification is required.

Check with the venue for additional requirements.

Testing requirements:

National Poultry Improvement Plan
U.S. Pullorum-Typhoid Clean States

Avian Influenza:

A negative test is required for waterfowl within TEN days before entering the state.

Pullorum:

Negative test within 90 days before entering the state

OR

Originate from a Pullorum-free flock.

Non-poultry are exempt.